Re: October 2007 Travel Reimbursement

On October 3, 2007; I traveled to Washington D.C. with a party of five to meet with Federal Representatives to gain support for continued federal funding of Florida Keys Water Quality projects pertinent to the enhancement and protection of the Florida Keys National Marine Sanctuary surrounding Monroe County.

My office had made a reservation at the Grand Hyatt Washington for a ~~for~~ one-bedroom conference suite to meet my needs for a both a bedroom suite (with separate "living room" seating area from the bedroom), as well a conference table area. The cost of the conference suite was $549.00 per day. Upon arrival, I was able to negotiate a lower cost of $349.00 per day for the guest room, and $99.00 per day for the adjoining conference room, a savings of $101.00 per day or $202.00 for the two day stay. To my understanding, to avoid the conference room level fee, it was billed as a guest room for their internal accounting system. I certify that I did not have two sleeping rooms; the 2nd room charge is for a conference room for meetings held over the two day visit with Federal officials.

If you have any further questions regarding the billing, please contact my office for assistance.
