Dear Mr. Shillinger:

This letter will confirm our telephone conversation of today. I have advised you that our firm, ARONOVITZ JAFFE, and Freed & Weiss, LLC, who have represented Monroe County in a class action case against Hotels.Com, et al., now seek to proceed with an individual case on behalf of Monroe County against select online travel companies.

ARONOVITZ JAFFE and Freed & Weiss, LLC shall proceed as co-lead counsel on a contingent fee basis pursuant to the attached Contingent Fee Agreement dated January 22, 2007. Pursuant to said agreement, we seek to add as additional plaintiff's counsel: Karl Barth – Lovell Mitchell & Barth; and David Killea – Gilbert Randolph, on a contingent fee basis. Please Note: All other terms and conditions of the existing Contingent Fee Agreement remain in full force and effect and Monroe County agrees to pay a contingent legal fee and will not advance any court costs in this case.

I ask that you execute a copy of this letter agreement which will become an exhibit to the current Contingent Fee Agreement dated January 22, 2007. Thank you for your consideration of this matter.

Very truly yours,

TOD ARONOVITZ
