

No more Marathon getting here.

Introducing new air service between Marathon Key and Ft. Myers.

Beginning December 19th, enjoy the convenience of six flights a day between Ft. Myers and Marathon Airport. It's a great way to get down here fast, and connect with flights to and from the rest of the country out of Ft. Myers Airport.

This new route will be served by Continental Connection and operated by Cape Air, who's been serving Key West and South Florida for fifteen years. One of the nation's most trusted regional airlines, you can rely on frequent flights and fast, affordable, dependable service. And free parking at Marathon Airport.

Why spend the day driving when you can be here in under an hour? Book your flight online at www.continental.com or call 1-800-525-0280 for more information.
